

United States Council Foundation

McGraw-Hill
Research Foundation

The Roundtable on Education and Human Capital Requirements

McGraw-Hill Headquarters – New York City
1221 Avenue of the Americas, Empire Conference Room- 45th Floor
February 24, 2012

Established in 1983, the purpose of The United States Council Foundation is to carry out research and educational activities designed to promote and advance the benefits of a free market economy and to demonstrate and document the role of the corporate private sector in economic growth and social development. Additional information is available at www.uscib.org.

The McGraw-Hill Research Foundation's mission is to support organizations, projects and activities that are advancing global education and knowledge in the 21st Century. The Foundation was established with the support of The McGraw-Hill Companies. Additional information is available at www.mcgraw-hillresearchfoundation.org.

Participants

Charles Fadel – Discussion Leader
Harvard/MIT/Wharton

Riel Miller
Xperidox

David Autor
Massachusetts Institute of Technology

Steven Paine
Former West Virginia State
Superintendent of Schools

Ronnie Goldberg
U.S. Council for International Business

Andreas Schleicher
OECD

Jeff Livingston
McGraw-Hill Education

June Shelp
The Conference Board

Douglas Lynch
University of Pennsylvania

Nicole Smith
The Georgetown University Center on Education and the Workforce

Bernard Meyerson
IBM

Dan Treffer
University of Toronto

Observers

Barbara Chow
The William and Flora Hewlett Foundation

Mary John O'Hair
University of Kentucky

Adam Greene
U.S. Council for International Business

Bleik Pickett
University of Kentucky

Judy Judd-Price
NAFSA: Association of International Educators

Mitch Rosin
McGraw-Hill Education