Dear Charles,

The McGraw-Hill Research Foundation is pleased to support the important work of The Center for Curriculum Redesign. The Center's efforts to advance global education and knowledge for workforce development are aligned with the mission of The McGraw-Hill Research Foundation.

The Education and Human Capital Requirements Roundtable held on February 24, 2012 and organized by The Center for Curriculum Redesign, The McGraw-Hill Research Foundation and The United States Council Foundation was a strong start to our ongoing collaboration.

It is a pleasure working with The Center for Curriculum Redesign to increase our understanding of learning and education for jobs.

Sincerely,

James H. McGraw, IV
